SUMMER JOB & PART-TIME YEARLY POSITION

Summer opportunity for male student for live-in job as one of three attendants to Professor James A. Graaskamp. Private quarters at 202 Breese Terrace, breakfast and dinner, and base pay of $15.00 per week plus hourly wages for both domestic chores and extensive business travel throughout the U.S. Job will conflict with regularly scheduled summer school courses but flexible enough to anticipate specific time off for various personal events or seminars. Minimum net cash at the end of the summer guaranteed of $1,000 per man. Additional opening will be available with or without travel during regular semesters without class conflicts so that student may find this an excellent opportunity to work his way through school.

Call to schedule interview at 262-6378 (University office) or 233-6400 (business office) or 238-8452 (home office).
